GEOMETRIC ANALYSIS OF PROJECTS CARRIED OUT BY MICHAEL RICE

6.1- Genesis

Genesis is the name of a unique construction conceived in 2005 and manifested in the hills of the Slieve Bloom Mountains in the heart of Ireland. It was designed by Michael Rice and built using the best principles of Biological Architecture and Sacred Geometry, fully incorporating the deep knowledge and benefits of both. Nestled in a beautiful field of 4.5 hectares (facing south), it consists of more than 950 m² of construction on five levels.
