GEOMETRIC ANALYSIS OF PROJECTS CARRIED OUT BY MICHAEL RICE

6.2- The Fox

The dyad represents the duality that arises effortlessly from unity. It is the yin and the yang, the convergent and the divergent, the positive and the negative. It can be expressed in many ways, such as the intersection of two equal circles (Vesica Piscis) with a wave / curve that incorporates a tangential relationship between two radial harmonics of Phi. The energy signature of this geometry is bridge, interconnection, possibility. The sensation within these spaces has been described as tending to harmony and balance.
